Current Refugee Crisis in Germany
Call for investigation and international observer team in Germany

Dear His Excellency U.N. Secretary General Ban Ki-Moon !

The refugee crisis ongoing in Germany and in Europe seems to be quite difficult for both the people which try to find a safe harbor in Germany and in Europe and for the citizen of Germany and in Europe.

Recently since weeks there have occurred even public and other reports about the possible violations against universal, fundamental and elementary Human Rights which have been proclaimed already in 1948 by the United Nations in Germany and against refugees from many different countries, poor, sick, disabled, young and old people which in many cases do live already under the poverty line in Germany and against the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union.

As you are able to imagine I am trouble very much about these things which might
